Screw this buggy crap, save you money.. Not very good.. Love this to pieces, it really satisfies.. Horizontal shoot-em-up with about a dozen platform levels spanning four stages plus unlockable difficulties and challenges. You have a single-target beam and a multi-target arc beam at your disposal, can choose which to power up with drops and switch between them, and the direction you're facing, with the press of a button. The only problem with the game is that the maneuverability and inertia are quite poor and really affect your performance. A decent game otherwise, with learning to use both beam types at the right time being essential to progress and survive. Leaderboards for pretty much everything and the game looks great. Doubt I would buy it again if given the chance though due to the terrible piloting.. Not bad, just bland. I died for no apparent reason on the 3rd level and had to start over at the 1st. I found that to be a good stopping point.. A complete waste Even at $5.00. The game is merciless, the first level - the easiest difficulty. I have died so often that I am dying more than I'm playing. I understand some challenge, a game that teases you. This game takes that to unrealistic levels. It's based on "perfection", one wrong move, accidentally standing on a random spawn, and you've lost - you get no checkpoint, you have to restart the whole level. I haven't even survived 1:00 minute. I don't even want to play it anymore, the game had amazing potential, but with the difficulty level, its not possible to enjoy.. Not very good.
